EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Marilyn Khorsandi on August 15th.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Claims:

Please Cancel Claims 60, 61, 65, and 100-103.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Schwab (US 2002/0019777) discloses the use of a third party return system for online returns where return rules are outlined by the merchant, and if the information meets the return parameters set forth by the rules the return is processed and credit is given to the user, however does not disclose the merchant selecting a list of carriers which are approved for shipping the returns. Siegel (US 2004/01435519) discloses a return system where each item of previous orders of a user is listed with an associated checkbox in which a return request can be sent. Junger (6,269,344) discloses the use of a return being initiated through an online retail computer system. And Kara discloses the use of a user being given multiple shipping options for multiple carriers, however Kara is silent as to being used in a return processing environment. Therefore an online merchandise return computer system comprising at least one computer device which is programmed to, and a computer program product comprising program code embodied on a medium and adapted to be executed to receive, from the merchant, a pre-selection of a set of carriers for return shipping of returnable merchandise, receive a request to return at least one item, display to the user a list of potentially returnable items, receive a selection of at least one item and compare information return policy rules, and if the particular item is returnable generating a display comprising information corresponding to the set of pre-selected carriers by the merchant is not anticipated nor rendered obvious over the prior art of record.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to JAMISUE A. PLUCINSKI whose telephone number is (571)272-6811. The examiner can normally be reached on M-Th (5:30 - 4:00).
